#VoteNHS Roadshow General Election 2019

The NHS isn't safe in Tory hands

The #VoteNHS Roadshow is a series of meetings and street events up and down the land bringing the clear message to public and press: 'Don't vote Tory, #VoteNHS'.

Since the last election the NHS has been put under more pressure than ever. Waiting times have got longer and the number of cancelled operations due to staff shortages is still on the rise.

No one believes Boris Johnson that the NHS is 'off the table' in a post-Brexit trade deal with the Trump administration. The NHS is now facing its biggest existential crisis ever.

The NHS is ranked as the number one concern for the public; the roadshows will shed light on what is really going on in the NHS.
